It was a historic day at the All American Quarter Horse Congress on October 9 when it welcomed USA Para Reining classes to its prestigious schedule!

According to USA Para Reining Committee Chairman Jennifer Hoyt, the members of USA Para Reining were more than proud to be part of the 2016 All American Quarter Horse Congress in Columbus, Ohio. She noted, "It was a thrill for all the riders to be cheered on by a packed house and help to spread awareness for para reining. "

New Jersey's Frederick Win won the Grade 4 Para Championship on Rem N Trash with Reserve going to Holly Jacobson on Ruf N Loaded. Cole Jacobs of Fabius, New York earned the Grade 3 championship title on Pin Stripe Benz, with Cullen Santino LeRoy of Lowell, Indiana claiming reserve honors on Smokin N Tinseltown.

Jennifer Flanagan of Summerville, South Carolina, won the Grade 2 class championship on Docs Handy Ruby. Dale Dedrick became the Grade 1 champion on Ruf N Loaded owned by Cole Jacobs.

Hoyt quickly expressed the appreciation of USA Para Reining and USA Reining to the Congress Show Management and organizers. She also gave a special thanks to the Para Reining Sponsors - Shawn Florida Reining Horses, Rick Clark, Beth Himes and EJ Allison. She said, "They helped to make such a wonderful show of participation possible!"

USA Para Reining is part of USA Reining which is the official designated affiliate for reining with the United States Equestrian Federation. USA Para Reining is dedicated to creating opportunities for disabled individuals to enjoy the great sport of reining and compete at high levels at events like the All American QH Congress.
